DOCUMENTARY WEDDING PHOTOJOURNALISM

ABOUT US: JIM AND CARLA WINN

We first met in 2002 while studying photojournalism at Western Kentucky University, and were married in the summer of 2006. As trained, working photojournalists, our work has taken us throughout the world, producing content for newspapers, magazines and humanitarian organizations like Children of the Americas.

While our current focus is documentary weddings, we still retain editorial clients such as the New York Times, the Los Angeles Times, the Chicago Tribune and many others. This tried and true level of professional experience gives us the ability to produce compelling images that celebrate your day, without taking the spotlight of those who matter most - the bride and groom.

Your Investment

When you hire Jim and Carla, you won't get weekend warriors. We are trained, professional and full-time working photojournalists that you can trust to provide excellent images. Our documentary style celebrates clean, storytelling images that keep the focus on the subject, the same philosophy we take in documenting weddings - keep it simple. We currently offer two standard wedding packages, and are more than happy to add ala-carte items to help you customize your wedding. If you have a custom request that isn't listed, let us know! We are more than happy to accommodate your needs.
